

AMY COELHO

EVENT & CATERING COORDINATOR

A hopeless romantic and big believer in happily-ever-after, Amy Coelho takes great joy in learning peoples' love stories and seeing them through to their big day making her a great addition to The Ice House team as a Catering and Event Coordinator. She knows the importance and strength in genuinely connecting with people and attention to detail.

Her positivity, keen eye and knack for perfection stems from her many years working in Marketing & Social Media, as well as the Real Estate Industry where she wore many hats and learned to balance discipline, structure, imagination and the art of creativity. This shed light on a new creative path and forged her way into the Event World.

When Amy is not busy working, she can be found anywhere there is live music, adventurous outings, or spending time with her family and friends!
