

LINDSAY BROUGH

DIRECTOR OF CRUSHED ICE CATERING

Lindsay's passion for food and events started at a very young age. Her passion for events and great food developed early on while from helping with her mother's company, Two-Can Events & Catering.

At the age of 19, after working at a local restaurant as a hostess, Lindsay decided to start a career in Catering and Event Planning. From April 2007 to May 2010, as the catering manager, she worked with the exclusive catering company at the Kentucky Derby Museum. Lindsay worked with the catering director on developing customized menus, staffing, decor, and event layouts. Lindsay was also involved with menu planning, rentals and coordination for Kentucky Derby Events for four years.

All of her experience ultimately led her to teaming up with Lawrence Agnew and Erica Outlaw to build the sister companies, Ice House and Crushed Ice Catering in June 2010. Today, as the Director of Catering Sales, she wows clients with her ability to bring any and all events, large or small, to their full potential.
